

October 24th - October 30th

Do you have a daily walking, running, or biking route? Looking for new ways to get outside with the family? The Charles River Conservancy is thrilled to announce Mask On, Litter Gone, a week long initiative to clean up our local neighborhoods and ecosystems by picking up litter, all while wearing masks and social distancing.

KICKOFF EVENT

October 24th, 9 - 11 a.m.
Magazine Beach, Cambridge

Volunteers will remove litter and collect data on the material found. Due to COVID-19, there are a limited number of spaces available so don't delay and RSVP today! Email Sasha Vallieres, our Volunteer Program Manager, at svallieres@thecharles.org to RSVP and for more details about the event!

Record what you collect with our QR Code!

#MaskOnLitterGone

#CRCCleanup

Disclaimer: Individuals assume full responsibility for any risk of body injury or property damage arising out of or related to participation in the Mask on, Litter Gone Cleanup.